Surf City to Amend Current State of Emergency

Surf City, NC – As the State of North Carolina moves towards a “Safer at Home Phase 2” of reopening, the Town of Surf City will lift the local State of Emergency restriction requiring facial coverings in indoor establishments, effective at 5pm, Friday, May 22nd as well as remaining restrictions on Short Term Rentals. The Town remains vigilant during these times and strongly urges all residents and visitors to follow the guidance provided by the Centers for Disease Control and the North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services, especially practicing the “3 W’s: Wear, Wait, and Wash.”
